

Don't take away my information. What does it matter if there is another option for weather and road information. If the NAB got off their rear ends and made better availability of local Weather and road information instead of crying for help from the goverment it would be time better spent.